

LOS ANGELES + LAS VEGAS
COMPANY PROFILE

WHO WE ARE

With its main headquarters located in Nevada, MG Studio is coming up to its 20th year in developing cinematic content for Aerial, 360, commercial campaigns, experiential, films, documentaries, corporate media and national television ads from around the globe. Our team possesses a fresh, creative experience for our clients.

MG Studio is well versed in all aspects of the production industry — from budgeting and planning, to producing and directing — and finally, ending up in the post bay. We pride ourselves on our proven track record of production services. This is due to an efficient workflow from MG Studio's crew and experienced leaders at the executive level since 1998.

20+ YEARS IN PRODUCTION

MG Studio's extensive skills and youthful outlook encompass all aspects of pre-production, production and post-production services, including site reviews and original branded content.

At MG Studio, we are continually expanding our knowledge of the latest in cinema services to assist our clients with successfully implementing

FILM + TV PRODUCTION SOURCE

MG Studio has experience with large productions involving crews of thirty or more on set at a time. Our team has been responsible for the successful implementation of numerous product launches with clients — such as McKinney, Microsoft, GPJ, Project Worldwide and more... Our studio is passionately involved in every step towards our client's vision and overall goals.
